Seniors

Senior Class History

This is the Class of '37 broadcasting over Station A. H. S. We now present the news reports:

September 1934

Flash! A number of green Sophomores invade the High School. They readily adapt themselves to their new surroundings and begin to take part in dramatics, music, debate, Girl Reserve, Hi-Y, etc.

September 1935--June 1936

The Junior Class has begun to realize its importance and has made its contribution in many different ways.

Special News Bulletin! Roger Fritsch, June Hughes, Dean Berry and David Sayre are elected as the class officers.

"Big Hearted Herbert" proves a smashing success due to the efforts of the cast and production staff!

The Class wishes to take this time to express its appreciation to Miss Mackin and Miss Wilcox for their leadership and cooperation.

September 1936--June 1937

The Senior Class takes the school by storm! The group has completely come out of its shell and there's no stopping it, as shown by the students in their dramatic work, debate, music, scholarship, athletic, and literary ability.

Special News Report! Charles O'Neil, Betty Quaife, Winnifred Cannon, and Betty Morris are chosen to lead the class to the end of its high school days with the help of its sponsors Miss Hartsook and Miss Canvin.

As June approaches and the Class of '37 reaches its goal, that of graduation, the group leaves the school with pleasant memories of the last three years.

This is the Class of '37 broadcasting over Station A. H. S., now signing off—

BETTY QUAIFE '37.

Juniors

Junior Class History

ANOTHER JUNIOR CLASS has survived its sophomore year and is looking forward to its Senior year in 1938.

We see the Juniors taking an important part in many phases of school life. Football and basketball show the outstanding athletic ability of several of our classmates. Spring sports will probably show up many more.

Club work has taken a great majority of the Class of '38. Most of us are partaking of the benefits obtained from Hi-Y and Girl Reserves, and many are showing individual talent and leadership in the Music clubs, Dramatic Club, Art Club, and others.

At the beginning of the year, the class picked its leaders for their Junior year. They selected Bob Shearer as their president, George Underwood as vice president, Bettijane Kern as secretary, and Kenneth West as treasurer.

With the helping hand of the sponsors of the Class of '38, the class gave an excellent interpretation of the play, Life Begins at Sixteen. The cast played their parts well with the difficult roles falling on two able dramatic club members, Dick Gernes and Ora Clark.

From the proceeds of this production, the Juniors entertained its upper-classmen, the Class of '37, at the Junior-Senior Frolic.

At this time, as spokesman for the Junior Class, I wish to thank the faculty, especially Miss Wilcox and Miss Braunwarth, our sponsors, and all others for the cooperation shown towards us and the help they gave us in guiding us through these last two years in such a way as to make them last in our memory forever.

BOB SHEARER '38.

SPIRIT

Sophomores

History of the Sophomore Class

EIGHT MONTHS and twenty-one days ago the Sophomores brought forth into this school a new class, conceived in Central and Welch and dedicated to the proposition that all classes are not created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great contest, testing whether this class, or any class so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We have come to tell our reasons for believing that this class will long endure.

The class showed fine promise in athletics. "R. C." Mulhall was given a berth on the football team and was awarded a major letter. Randall Trotter had similar success in basketball.

Prominent in the Dramatic and Debate Clubs were other members of the sophomore class. Ronald Ross had a part in the cast of the Dramatic Club's fall play, The Outsider. Richard McCarthy was elected a member of the National Forensic League in recognition of his work in debate.

Many Sophomores won places in Mixed Chorus and Glee Clubs. Band and Orchestra also claimed many sophomores.

Would-be journalists found places in the Cubs' Club, gaining worthwhile experience as they helped the senior journalism classes gather news for the Web.

The world will little note, nor long remember, what we have said here, but it can never forget what we did here.

National Honor Society

JOHN WENTZ	President
JEANNE TAFF	Vice President
MARGUERITE BURROUGHS	Secretary
DOROTHY ROOT	Treasurer

TO BE CHOSEN a member of the National Honor Society is to receive one of the highest honors Ames High may give to a student. Character, leadership, service, and scholarship are the personal traits that must be outstanding to merit one's membership. In addition one must be in the upper one-fourth of his class scholastically.

Selections for membership are made three times from each class, once at the end of the junior year and twice during the senior year, five per cent being admitted each time.

Meetings are held every two weeks, business meetings alternating with social. This organization strives to promote better school spirit and cooperation. This year it again sponsored the Junior Red Cross drive and conducted a special campaign to raise money for the Ohio Valley flood victims.

National Forensic League

DAVID SAYRE	President
IRVING MERRILL	Vice President
BARBARA BURNETT	Secretary
JOSEPH HOLMS	Treasurer

THE PURPOSE OF this nation-wide league is to promote the interests of interscholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking by encouraging a spirit of fellowship and by conferring upon deserving candidates a worthy badge of distinction.

At present this organization includes only members who have been elected through outstanding work in debate. Several members have received the degree of Merit for 15 points; the degree of Honor for 30 points; the degree of Excellence for 60 points; and now hold the highest degree, that of Distinction for 100 points.

National Thespian Society

DOROTHY ROOT	President
WINNIFRED CANNON	Vice President
ORA CLARK	Secretary
JO MACRAE	Treasurer

THE THESPIAN TROUP of Ames Senior High School was organized in 1932 with fourteen charter members. The purpose of the society is to encourage and to aid dramatics in high schools. It is composed of eighteen high school students who have earned their membership by extensive work in the production of one and three act plays given by the Dramatic Club.

Officers were elected at the beginning of the year. Throughout the year the Thespians broadcasted several plays, made a trip to Des Moines to see a play presented there, and saw a presentation of a play by the Iowa State Players. They enjoyed two dinners and a picnic at the Ledges.

New members were elected at the end of the year to carry on the ideals "work, application, and loyalty" next year.

Quill and Scroll

JEANNE TAFF	President
DOROTHY ROOT	Vice President
MARGUERITE BURROUGHS	Secretary-Treasurer

QUILL AND SCROLL is an international honorary society for high school journalists. It was founded for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in journalistic fields. The Ames chapter is made up of students who have done outstanding work on one of the schools publications, the Web or the SPIRIT.

To become a member of Quill and Scroll, a student must be of at least junior standing; he must be in the upper one-third of his class scholastically; he must have done distinctive work in some field of journalism; he must be recommended by the faculty sponsor of the publication; and he must be approved by the international officer.

The Web

A NEW PLAN for the Web was inaugurated this year by the journalism class under the sponsorship of Miss Alpha Braunwarth. A weekly Web page was published in the Ames Daily Tribune. All of the material was written and copy-read by the students. The regular Web was published once a month. All work, including reporting, copy-reading, proof-reading, headline writing, make-up, and soliciting for advertising, was done by the journalism class.

All positions on the staff were changed for each issue of the Web, giving everyone a chance to learn the duties connected with each office.

Members of the class worked at the Milepost before each publication of the paper, thus obtaining practical experience in the actual mechanics of newspaper printing.

Hi-Y

THE AMES HI-Y CLUB is the largest of its kind in the state, and is the only one to which all the boys in school may belong. It represents the Y.M.C.A. of the school and helps to develop high spiritual and moral standards among the boys of Ames High.

This year several smaller firesides took the place of the one large one and seemed to prove more interesting and useful. Throughout the year, the theme of "Character Building" was carried out in the general meetings. The hobby groups provided fun and interest for the participants, as usual.

The old activities of Hi-Y include: the selling of candy at sports events; Friendship Conference; vocational fireside; Christmas baskets; and a new thing was the selling of "A" ties.

AFTER THE INITIATION of new members, held in the Lutheran Church at the beginning of the year, the regular duties of the Girl Reserves began. The Thanksgiving basket custom was carried out as usual and the Dad-daughter party and Mother-daughter tea were also bright spots during the year.

As well as the traditional activities a new joint Hi-Y and Girl Reserve Christmas project was started. The two groups made up individual boxes and sent them to the old folks at the County Home.

"Friendship Week" was very inspirational and greatly enjoyed. Dr. Stoddard Lane of Des Moines was the speaker for the week.

A change in sponsors occurred when Miss Curtis left the school for an advisory position at Stephen's College. Miss White was made chief adviser and Miss Stoaks, a new teacher, was made assistant adviser.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, the self-governing body of the students, is made up of the presidents of the fifteen home rooms with Miss White as faculty adviser.

The Council met during the fifth period of every Monday to settle problems which arose in the school. Special meetings were called when necessary.

This year the Council successfully carried out the "Open House" program on November 12. A larger number of parents attended this program than ever before.

The Council held a one-day conference with those of six nearby schools. Council relationships were discussed.

THE SENIOR SENATE, the executive body of the Class of '37, is made up of class officers, senior home room presidents, and one representative from each senior home room. The officers of the senior class and the Senate are the same.

This solemn and dignified group has the responsibility of selecting the class motto, song, flower, and colors, as well as solving any problem that involves the entire class and placing before the seniors proposals as to the best policies to be adopted.

The Senate also has the authority to appoint committees to make the plans for commencement. Although the group is small, it tries to be a fair representative of the whole class.

FRANTICALLY the final touch of make-up is added; the actors rush into their places; property managers take a last look at the stage, and as the electricians blot out the house lights, the curtain parts and the audience beholds a scene of calm splendor. Under the guidance of Mrs. Ferne Gaunt, the Dramatic Club has completed another successful year in Ames High. The club presented two three act plays. The fall play was The Outsider and the spring play was Outward Bound. Many one act plays were presented within the club.

IN UPHOLDING traditional appreciation for good music and sincerity of expression through song, this year's Mixed Chorus has carried on the record of past groups.

The chorus again entered music contests and went to the district and state tournaments.

A Christmas vesper program was presented at the First Methodist Church. The annual program of church concerts was held in the spring.

This year Miss Bower has developed a new system of preparing songs through individual try-outs.

The repertoire of the group has been enlarged to include folk-songs and madrigal type music, besides the traditional sacred hymns.

THE BOY'S GLEE CLUB has always been considered one of the finest of the extra-curricular activities. The improvement of individual voices and better appreciation of music are the objectives of the group.

Under the guidance of Miss Edna Bower the boys have learned to sing the spirited songs of the mountains and campfires, the more reverent songs of friendship, and the harmonious and rhythmic notes of the negro spiritual.

Programs in other schools, the Music Festival, and the Christmas musical are a few of the projects carried out during the past year.

We have appreciated and enjoyed this year in Boy's Glee Club, and sincerely wish next year's group the greatest of success.

The members served in the library two hours a week during their study hall periods and one week a semester after school. The officers are elected each semester.

The club met every six weeks for a pot luck supper at the homes of the members and discussed library problems. The programs have been composed of reviews of worthwhile books, prepared by the members.

Football Summary

AMES 19

EAGLE GROVE 0

Ames High opened the season against Eagle Grove with an inexperienced team. The Little Cyclones however, soon found themselves and swept over Eagle Grove 19 to 0. Jones accounted for all three touchdowns, scoring in the first, third, and fourth quarters. The whole Ames line performed well against the less effective Eagle Grove team.

NEVADA 0

Playing under lights at Nevada, the Little Cyclones got away to a slow start, but after the first quarter, displayed too much power for the county-seaters. Willcox scored two touchdowns and Ferguson, Underwood, and Koontz each went over once, to make the final score Ames 33 Nevada 0.

AMES 7

EAST SIOUX CITY 6

The Little Cyclones played excellent football in outplaying and outscoring a strong and experienced East Sioux City team, 7 to 6. Two successive passes, O'Neil to Thompson, and Jones to Taylor brought the Ames marker. Al Rothaker, with his "educated toe," kicked the extra point for the margin of victory. Brown, Richard Mason, and Koontz looked best for the Little Cyclones.

Sixty Seven

1937

Football Summary . . .

MARSHALLTOWN 6

On a windy homecoming morning, Ames fought Marshalltown to a 6 to 6 tie. Ames counted first on a long pass, Jones to Weeks, but Marshalltown came back strong and tied the game up after two sustained drives had been stopped by the Little Cyclones. The Ames attack was weakened by the illness of Ash, tackle, and injuries to Mason and Weeks.

OSKALOOSA 12

The first defeat of the season was handed the Little Cyclones at Oskaloosa. Underwood skirted the end for two long runs and touchdown in the second quarter. Oskaloosa tied the score in the third period, and with only seconds remaining in the game, Bainbridge intercepted an Ames pass and ran for the winning score. Willcox was a tower of strength on defense. Grinstead and Underwood also stood out.

AMES 6

PERRY 19

Ames met one of the most powerful teams in the state at Perry. After Perry had scored on a smash by "Moose" Nelson, Ames took the ball on their own 3 yard line and made a sustained march down the field to score a touchdown. The drive featured nice ball carrying by Jones and Wilcox, and a pass, Koontz to Weeks, for the counter. Perry's superior weight and reserves wore the Little Cyclones down in the second half. The final score being Ames 6 Perry 19. Mason and O'Neil were out with injuries.

GRINNELL 6

Due to a strong wind, the game at Grinnell was chiefly a punting duel between Blandin and Willcox. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Pioneers started a drive which ended in a touchdown. Late in the game Ames drove the ball deep into Grinnell territory, but failed to score.

AMES 7

BOONE 7

Ideal football weather greeted the large crowd which turned out for the traditional Armistice Day battle between Ames and Boone on State field. Ames got the jump on the favored Toreador aggregation by using a beautiful pass, Jones to Weeks, to take the lead, 7 to 0. The Little Cyclones, led by Bob Ash, literally tore their hearts out to retain their lead throughout the remainder of the game, but the steady stream of Boone substitutes finally pushed over a counter when Ames let up a bit in the fourth quarter.

Dick Mason was elected honorary captain at the close of the season.

Second Team Football

In order to build for future years and to give the younger boys in high school a chance to play football, Ames High encourages a strong second team well coached in the fundamentals of the game. This year, as in the past, Kenneth Wells put together a team which made a very creditable showing by winning five out of seven contests. East High and Roosevelt of Des Moines spoiled a perfect season by taking two close battles from the Ames seconds. However, the Little Cyclones defeated the North seconds, conquerors of both East and Roosevelt, to avenge their two previous defeats.

Several boys showed promise of developing into first team caliber by next football season. This group includes Randall Trotter, Judd Johnson, Don Minert, Harvey La Seur, Angelo Frangos, Darwin Grimes, Cal Flogstad, Jim Canady, Jim Cue, and Earl Geiger.

VIRGIL WEEKS, Forward

Due to the unusual combination of circumstances, Ames High had rather a disastrous season in basketball. All of the members of last year's state champions graduated so Ray Donels was forced to start from the bottom and build an entirely new team. Judd Thompson and Virgil Weeks, who saw enough service as reserves last year to win their letters, formed the hub for the new outfit.

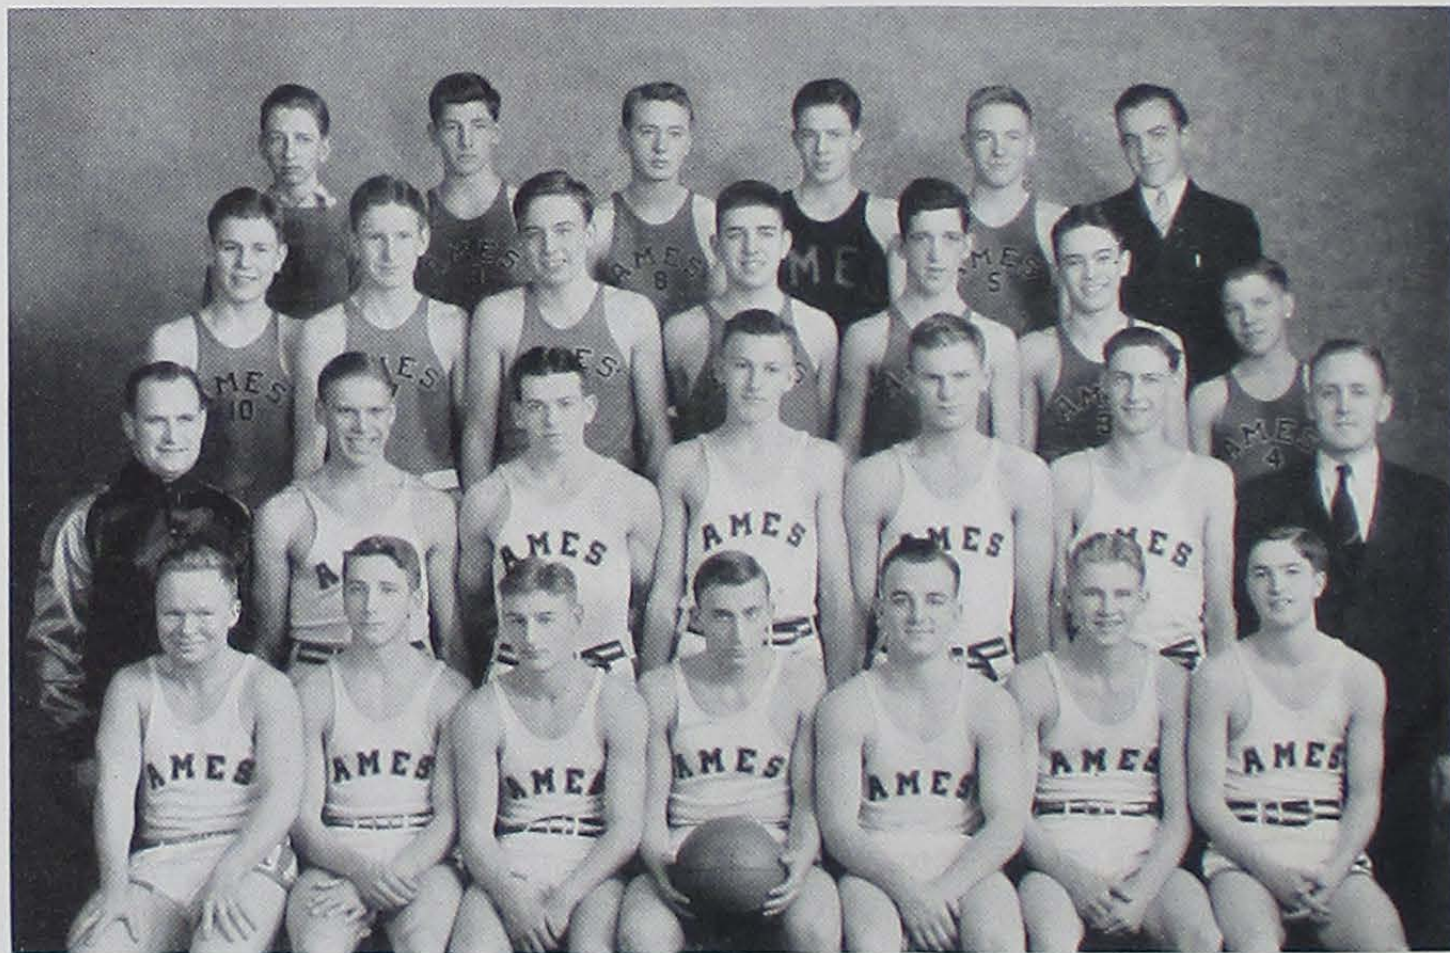

Seventy One

Ames started the season off with a bang, defeating Webster City and Nevada in decisive manner, but right here lady luck deserted Ames for other fields as Newton conquered the Little Cyclones in a heartbreaker, 24 to 26. With victories over Boone and Grinnell near the close of the regular season, the outlook appeared much more encouraging. In the sectional tournament Ames defeated Colo, but lost to a "hot" Nevada crew, 28 to 30.

Virgil Weeks was elected honorary captain at the close of the season.

Tennis

State Champions, is the title worn by the 1936 team, which was one of the best in the history of Ames High tennis.

The team's winning percentage for the season was 1000, only a tie with Roosevelt of Des Moines in the dual meet marred a perfect record.

Dual meets were held with West Waterloo, Boone, and Roosevelt. Ames participated in a triangular meet at Cedar Falls, and a quadrangular tournament was held here with Boone, Fort Dodge, and Roosevelt. Ames entered the Central Iowa Conference tournament at Grinnell, the district at Des Moines, and finished an enviable season by winning the state finals at Ames.

The team was composed of Bob Menze, Bill Bliss, Dick Young, Lawrence Owens, and Don Beresford, all seniors, and Jerry Frazier, a junior.

Bill Bliss was elected honorary captain of the team.

Golf

Thirteen boys and one girl made up the golf squad for 1936.

The golfers played nine scheduled meets, two with Roosevelt of Des Moines, two with Boone, and one with Teacher's High of Cedar Falls, East High of Des Moines, Marshalltown, and Fort Dodge. The team compiled a season average of 666 per cent, winning six matches and losing three. Roosevelt beat Ames twice and Boone once, to account for the defeats.

Ames won the conference title at Grinnell and placed second in the state meet at Des Moines.

Jo MacRae became the first girl to take part actively in a varsity sport at Ames. Jo did not play enough to win a letter, but she was able to hold her own against any of the boys.

Lettermen included Junior Vifquain, Maurice Smith, Hartwell Peet, Bob Thompson, and Bob Schreiber, who was elected honorary captain.

Track

Track as a team sport was returned to Ames High in 1936 after an absence of several seasons. It takes more than one season to develop a winning track team, but Mr. Wells was pleased with the squad's spirit and the willingness to learn and improve.

Ames entered the Teacher's College Relays at Cedar Falls, the Drake Relays, Central Iowa conference meet at Grinnell, and a triangular meet held here with Boone and Marshalltown. A class meet was also held, which the seniors won.

Ames won the triangular meet with Boone and Marshalltown and placed third in the Conference meet, where Jeffrey won the high and Owens the broad jump. The future outlook seems bright since the Ames Sophomore-Freshmen team beat Boone in a dual meet 84½ to 101½.

Major letters were awarded to Charles Briley, Alex Jeffrey, Lawrence Owens, George Underwood, and Don Smith. Ben Helmick and Jack Smith received minor awards.

*First, A—that stands for Ash,
The charmin' Robert B.
A big, tough tackle, but
A man of chivalry.*

*Then, M, for Minert, Don.
Oh, oh, my dears! That Voice!
I swear it's loud enough
For half a dozen boys.*

*Next, E—that letter stands
For Enke's six foot nine.
And try to boil THAT down
Into just four little lines.*

*Last, S—the answer to
The blushing maiden's prayer.
He's witty, handsome, bright.
Of course! It's David Sayre.*

*Begin again with H—
For little sophomore Hein.
One thought of Charlotte—then
Who is it comes to mind?*

*But I—that's hard to find.
There's just the Iversen boy.
And why bother with this poem
When you can see the real McCoy?*

*For G—there's Gernes, Dick,
And that big, wild lock of hair.
He isn't twins, although
He does go 'round in a pair.*

*For H—just pick out one—
Whichever one you wish:
There's Hausrath, Hartsook, Harms,
Or last (not least) Hadish.*

1937

The "T"

*We worked all night and all next day
To get that "T" in shape.
We used up all our string and rope,
And even thought of tape.*

*We tied the seat down to the floor,
And the body to the chassis,
And when we got that car tied up
It really looked quite classy.*

*We ground the valves and cleaned the plugs,
And when the other work was done,
We gave the crank a terrific yank,
But the darn thing wouldn't run.*

*We pleaded, prayed, and even swore,
We cussed and picked and whanged,
And then some one slammed the door;
The darn thing went off with a bang.*

*We all hopped in to hold her down,
While Louie let out the clutch,
The crazy thing went 'round and 'round,
You never saw the such.*

*That old tin "T" really went fine
But then we hit a bump,
But Louie straightened the old thing out,
Into an old gas pump.*

*The gas it squirted all around
Into a raging fire,
It burned up all the things on the ground
And the poor can's old front tire.*

*The cops were there, the firemen too,
It really was a shame
They had poor Louis feeling blue
For he was quite to blame.*

*The moral to this story is:
"Don't buy a model 'T' "
But something that is higher priced
And safer you will be."*

ROGER FRITSCH.

AMES HIGH TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. Thou shalt lift up thy feet as thou entereth study hall.
2. Thou shalt park thy juicy fruit and spearmint before thou entereth the door.
3. Thou shalt not use the locker doors for a bulletin board.
4. Thou shalt not skip more than one class a day, for the wrath of Mr. Young will be upon thee.
5. Thou shalt not snore in the class room.
6. Thou shalt not visit in the auditorium, but find a convenient place on the stairs.
7. Thou shalt not bluff the teacher.
8. Thou shalt not help thy neighbor get his lessons, but get them for him.
9. Thou shalt not believe in anything opposite to the teachers' ideas.
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's grade.

(Heard in Hall)

"No, I don't take sociology. I take public squeaking."

FRED FISCHER: (In civics) Do the people in the institutions for the absent-minded and insane have to pay?

FRANK GRAVES: (As Miss Wood came into study hall with some slips for seventh period) There can't be one for me. I've got a permanent one.

MILDRED McILRATH: The course of true love is never smooth, and I've been in love, so I guess I ought to know a bump when I see one.

SYLVIA DUITCH: (While Mary Jane Meyers and Helen Dodds were singing) Close the window, kids. I hear the wind whistling through, or is it the steam from the steam pipes?

NAOMI SCHUBERT: (During discussion on dresses) My mother just buys a size 12 dress and takes it in two inches and it just fits me swell.

MISS BRAUNWARTH: (During journalism) Does everyone have a head?

MISS HARTSOOK: (During bookkeeping I) What do you call a person from whom you buy merchandise on credit?

IRVING MERRILL: A sucker.

MISS HADISH: (During French III) In translating French we should all work together.

LOUIS FELDMAN: What are you doin' tonight, teach'?

Effigy Hanging

*It was a dark and stormy night,
When all at once appeared
Six men a danglin' from a board,
A sight most queer and weird.*

*The court had said the Triple A
Could not be anymore,
And so here hung this effigy,
Because someone was sore.*

*"It's probably some student's prank."
That's what the papers said.
"The farmers or the C. C. C."
The deans all thought—instead.*

*Well, soon they tore these pictures down,
And hunted for a clue,
But who could be the guilty ones,
I still don't know, do you?*

Thoughts for the Day

Some people are cheerful losers, others can't act.
Anyone can play bridge, but it takes a cannibal to throw up a hand.
Even a homely girl can live long enough to be a pretty old one.
Everything comes to him who orders hash.
The reason that we never hear of women after-dinner speakers is that they can't wait that long to tell it.
A loving son is one who lets his father use his own auto occasionally.
Nature is generous. She gives us our faces, but we can pick our own teeth.
The modern girl shows a lot more backbone than her mother ever did.
He who laughs last is dumb.
A stitch in time saves embarrassment.
The ability to wriggle your ears doesn't speed up the growth of your toenails.
A man can quickly change his nationality from a Straphanger to a Laplander.
Consider the fish—if he'd keep his mouth shut, he'd never be caught.
Many people push a pen, but a pencil must be lead.
The trouble with the rising generation is that they rise too late.
Always put off at night what you are going to put on in the morning.
The man who rises to the occasion should know when to sit down.

Life Philosophies

- ROGER FRITSCH: Living up to one's reputation is an awful strain.
GEORGE THOMPSON: You gotta be a football (and basketball) hero.
DOROTHY ROOT: I'll tell my father on you!
NED COOVER: A fellow never gets anywhere by being modest.
PHYLLIS SIMPSON: It don't mean a thing if it ain't got that swing.
LUCY CLAPP: I aim to please.
BETTEJANE KERN: The bigger they are, the harder they fall for me.
MARGARET MORGAN: Toot your own horn, and make it loud!
LOUISE MORRISON: Whither Johnny goeth, I will go.
JO MACRAE: Honest, truly, the Scotch aren't tight.
MARGARET SWANSON: Eat and the world eats with you. Someone else can do the dieting.
DAVID SAYRE: There is a logical explanation for everything.
ALICE ATCHLEY: Hi, pal!
MILDRED McILRATH: Watch out, boys! Here I come.
DICK MASON and DICK HUMMEL (in chorus): Us strong, silent men—there's more to us than meets the eye.

*I went to Mr. Strathman;
He set me in a chair,
For the SPIRIT was coming out,
And my picture must be there.*

*I wore my best silk dress,
I curled and fluffed my hair,
For the SPIRIT was coming out,
And my picture must be there.*

*I smiled my smirkiest smile,
The picture—it is rare,
When the SPIRIT comes out, my friends,
You'll find the poor thing there.*

DOROTHY FRAZIER: Yes, but he's not a working model.

*The balky mule has four-wheeled brakes,
A billy goat has bumpers,
A firefly has a bright headlight,
Rabbits are puddle jumpers.
Camels have balloon-tired feet,
And carry spares of what they eat,
But still I think that nothing beats
The kangaroos with rumble seats.*

A Fine Class . . . A Fine Book

It has given us a great satisfaction to produce so fine a book for Ames High as this one is. As in years gone by, we have devoted our best, and you have devoted your best, toward making the SPIRIT a true reflection of Ames High School.

We wish for you unbounded success and happiness in the years ahead, and thank you for the fine way you have worked with us in making this SPIRIT.

's All, Folks!

We've reached the end, or very near it.

The staff lays by its picture glue;

The press has run the copies through.

With a blush of pride we give to you

The nineteen thirty-seven SPIRIT.

Steve Hagen 5-1-13

Leane M. Young.
